REPORTING OFFICE MILWAUKEE	OFFICE OF ORIGIN MILWAUKEE	DATE JAN 8 1958	INVESTIGATIVE PERIOD 12-21, 30, 31-57; 1-2, 3-58
TITLE OF CASE HAROLD KLEIN, wa. Hal Klein		REPORT MADE BY RICHARD C. THOMPSON	TYPED BY MCS
		CHARACTER OF CASE ANTI-RACKETEERING

SYNOPSIS

HAROLD KLEIN, FBI No. 2824929, currently operates junk yard at 1725 W. Canal St., and resides at 3137 No. 51st St., Milwaukee. KLEIN has been arrested for carrying concealed weapon and disorderly conduct, but both charges were dismissed. Informants allege that KLEIN associates with hoodlums, especially those in Italian element sometimes called the Mafia; that he is a fence for stolen jewelry, autos and other goods; that he loans money to various enterprises involving hoodlums; that he has been especially close to AUGUST (GUS) CHIAVEROTTI, who is alleged to have good Chicago connections, and also once allegedly offered the leadership of the Milwaukee Mafia group. In the past KLEIN has operated a Lincoln-Mercury Agency, as well as several Milwaukee taverns. Description set out. Recent photo available.

Harold Klein, FBI No. 2824929, was born 8/21/15, at Milwaukee. He has lived and operated various businesses in Milwaukee and the Milwaukee Office considers him a top local hoodlum.

Klein's only known conviction is for a traffic violation. He has also been arrested for disorderly conduct and carrying a concealed weapon. There is no indication that he is armed or maintains a bodyguard but he is known to have severely beaten an informant who furnished information regarding Klein to the police. Numerous informants have furnished considerable information indicating that Klein has been active in fencing stolen property, including furs, jewelry and automobiles. He has allegedly been engaged in changing motor numbers and otherwise altering stolen cars for resale. He presently operates a junk yard which may be used in the fencing of stolen property.

Klein is alleged to be quite well-to-do and to have financial interests in a number of legitimate businesses in the Milwaukee area. He is reported to have connections with the criminal elements in Cleveland, St. Louis, Detroit and Chicago.

ACTION BEING TAKEN:

The report of SA Richard C. Thompson, 1/8/58, Milwaukee, reflects primarily the results of a file review and little active investigation under the top hoodlum program. The report does set out, however, a great number of excellent leads and Milwaukee has been instructed to concentrate on determining whether subject is presently engaged in fencing stolen property or other illegal activity.

TITLE OF CASE HAROLD KLEIN, was.		Report made by RICHARD C. THOMPSON	Typed By: esl
		CHARACTER OF CASE ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

Subject moved office of Klein Industrial Salvage Company to 1625 West Canal Street, Milwaukee. Informant advises subject anticipates distributing a beer produced by Fox Head Brewery under another label. MARVIN KLEIN, brother of subject, changed name of his bar to "Pink Glove," which now caters to homosexuals. Informant advises there has been friction between MARVIN KLEIN and FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, a top hoodlum of the Milwaukee Office, growing out of the operation of BALISTRIERI's juke boxes. Subject, on interview, denied any connection with burglary of Majestic Jewelers 12/3/57; stated he was virtually broke, and denied engaging in any illegal enterprise.

to build up the business and wanted nothing to do with the crowd sometimes referred to as the syndicate. PISCITELLO declined to mention any names in this regard and he denied that he had ever acted as "muscle" or enforcer for the syndicate interests. He said that he might have gained such a reputation through the fact that he has engaged in occasional fights and is able to take care of himself due to his pugilistic training and the fact that he fought 64 fights in the 147 pound class while in the service in the South Pacific and was never beaten.

AT KENOSHA, WISCONSIN

ADRIAN MATHIS

An unsuccessful effort was made to contact ADRIAN MATHIS at 4212 Taft Road, Kenosha, Wisconsin, on August 12, 1958.

On September 5, 1958, the above address was again contacted with negative results but [redacted] advised that ADRIAN and [redacted] had obtained a divorce in Kenosha about two months previously and neither was currently occupying the house at 4212 Taft Road. [redacted] said that she believed that [redacted] had sued for divorce and after obtaining it had gone to her people who were believed to reside at [redacted]

[redacted] said that ADRIAN MATHIS had not been seen recently and it was not known whether he was still in the area or whether he was still employed by the Holland Furnace Company. [redacted] said the Internal Revenue Service was also looking for ADRIAN MATHIS.

Review of Bureau file in this case reveals that this case has been in a closed status since June 4, 1959, and no reports were ever prepared which were suitable for dissemination to the Department.

If it appears from current investigation that subject's activities merit further attention under the Criminal Intelligence Program, a summary report setting forth background information concerning subject should be prepared. Thereafter, three copies of all reports prepared should be furnished to the Bureau.

NOTE: Instant case reopened for purpose of determining whether current activities of subject merit further investigation and in the possibility that a substantive violation may be present. No previous dissemination to the Department and only two copies of rerep received. In addition, rerep not deemed suitable for dissemination to Department since no previous background concerning subject ever furnished to Department.
